

Q2 MEMBER HAPPENINGS

E-NEWSLETTER BY MEMBERS, FOR MEMBERS

June 2009

Visit Our Website

June is another busy month for Quincy 2000 members!

If you have news that you'd like to share, email your information to donna@quincy2000.org. Q2 Member Happenings will be published at the beginning of each month.

We hope you enjoy Q2 Member Happenings and that members continue to support each other!

Dean Rizzo, Executive Director
Quincy 2000 Collaborative
(61) 847-1454

Have Fun with InSync Center of the Arts and American Girl!

InSync Center of the Arts will soon be opening its doors at its new location: 550 Adams Street in the Adams Street Plaza. They have a jam-packed summer planned, including an American Girl Doll Experience camp which will be held August 17-August 23 from 12:30 - 3:00. Open to ages 5 and up, girls will be making matching necklaces, hair bows, learning dances from the Kit Kittredge movie soundtrack and even writing their own story for their own doll! Space is limited and the cost for the week is $150 per child. Sign up at the InSync website:

www.insyncarts.com.

Granite Workers in Quincy

Explore the history of granite workers in Quincy through a tour of one of the last granite manufacturing businesses in the City, followed by a visit to the Granite Workers Memorial rose garden. The tour will be provided by Stephen Cantelli, Anneli and Harry Johnson, Ed Monti and Linda Montillo.

Saturday, June 20, 10:30 a.m. (rain date is June 27th). Meet at the Monti Granite Company, 266 Centre Street.!

WANTED: OLD SECOND REFRIGERATORS!

A National Grid residential customer who lives in or near Quincy is wanted to participate in planned news coverage of National Grid's new recycling program targeting old, inefficient second refrigerators that are in working order. You will receive a $30 rebate for JACO equipment to safely remove and recycle your appliance. National Grid is looking for participants willing to allow news cameras to shoot in their home and to be interviewed by local media. If interested and to learn more about equipment eligibility

Firefly's Offering Gluten-Free Menu

Firefly's Bodacious Bar-B-Que is now offering a gluten-free menu. With items ranging from marinated sirloin tips to molasses and brown sugar salmon, the special menu is packed with a variety of items for your individual requirements and needs. Firefly's is located at 516 Adams Street, Quincy. (617) 471-0011. Visit their website at www.fireflysbbq.com standards, contact Kate Ringe-Welch at 401-267-6660 or click here to email.

MassHousing Honors South Shore Savings Bank

MassHousing recently honored South Shore Savings Bank at its Annual Home Ownership Awards Ceremony for their promotion and origination of MassHousing's affordable mortgage and mortgage insurance products. South Shore Savings Bank was presented with an award for being the top producer of MassHousing's Homeowner Septic Repair loan program.

Quincy Medical Center - Henry Bosworth Memorial Golf Classic

The Quincy Medical Center - Henry Bosworth Memorial Golf Classic that was held on May 11, 2009 raised nearly $140,000 to support the hospital's Medication Safety Program, an ongoing performance improvement initiative directed at enhancing patient care.

Sonoma Spa Becomes Sonoma Spa & Salon

Mayor Thomas Koch was on hand recently to help Sonoma Spa & Salon celebrate its grand re-opening with a ribbon cutting ceremony. For the past seven years, Sonoma Spa has offered manicures, pedicures, all types of massage and skincare. The addition of hair services (cut, color, foils, perms, styles and updos) within the spa have transformed it into a full-service salon & spa. Sonoma is located at 235 Atlantic Street in North Quincy. (618) 773-5130. Visit them online at www.sonomaspa.net

Harvesting Hope 2009 DOVE's annual Harvesting Hope fundraiser will take place on October 2, 2009 at Granite Links. This year, DOVE is again offering sponsorship and advertisement opportunities for the Harvesting Hope event. Corporate and private contributors are invited to advertise in the program and support DOVE through sponsorship of the event. Over the last three decades, DOVE has sheltered more than 4,400 families and answered more than 40,500 crisis hotline calls. For more information, contact Jessica Carmer, Acting Executive Director, at 617-770-4065, ext. 11

QUINCY
2000
COLLABORATIVE

Economic Partnerships in the 21st Century

Best Western Adams Inn Announces New Ownership

Robert E. Galligan, CEO and Innkeeper of the Best Western Adams Inn, is pleased to announce the formation of a new ownership team. The Galligan Family will be joined by Quincy real estate developers Sean and Scott Galvin, along with Quincy businessman James Mullaney. "The new owners are committed to continuing the ongoing improvements to the Best Western Adams Inn and function facilities," said Galligan. "The special skill sets each partner brings will ensure that while we service the needs of the Best Western International, we will also focus on the needs of our local clientele." The Best Western Adams Inn is located at 29 Hancock Street, Quincy. (617) 328-1500, www.bwadamsinn.com

1250 Hancock Street
Suite 127N
Quincy, MA 02169
(617) 847-1454

Hallowed Herbs Tea House

Lisa Tavakoli, proprietor of the Hallowed Herbs Tea House, invites Quincy 2000 members to receive a 15% discount on the next tea class which will be offered in June. This class is going to focus on black tea and the many health benefits associated with tea. The cost of the class (prior to discount) is $35 and students will receive a one ounce bag of tea to take home! Please call (617) 479-2259 for the class date and additional information. Hallowed Herbs Tea House is located at 25 High School Avenue in Quincy.

Now Hiring!

Marina Bay Dental, located at 308 Victory Road in Marina Bay, is hiring a part-time receptionist. The position is for two days during the week and the ideal candidate is someone who is professional and polished, with great interpersonal and organizational skills. Interested candidates should contact Jenny Chong at 479-8080.

